English Language Learning Resources Scavenger Hunt

English Language Learner Reference Center

"The American Flag" by Roberta Stathis

> You can find this article by simply searching "flag" or be clicking History & Civics > U.S. Civics > American Flag.

"U.S. Holidays and Celebrations" by Jen Rassler

> This is the first result when you search "holiday" but you can also find it by clicking Life Skills > Living in the U.S. > United States Holidays and Celebrations.

American English Online

White House Interactive Tour

> This resource can be found under the Culture tab at the top of the page along with a list of other "American Culture" resources.

The Lighter Side of TEFL

> This publication is under the Learn tab and is the first resource listed in the "Games and Grammar" section. Clicking it will give you instructions on how to order (and buy) the print or you can scroll down to open sections of the book in pdf format. There are crossword puzzles, riddles, etc. The link to the answer key is at the very bottom.

Voice of America: Learning English

"Taking the TOEFL"

> Click The Classroom > Activities and scroll down to the Academic English Section. "Taking the TOEFL" is an interactive resource listed there. It's also the 4th or 5th result when you search the website for TOEFL.

"American Election Vocabulary"

> To find this story (and others) look on the homepage under the heading Articles & Stories for English Beginners. It's a captioned video of election coverage followed by definitions of key words used and a comprehension quiz.

Updated November 17, 2012

Rebekah F. Wood, Intern (IIP/RCA/AS)